Othello: (f)i Attitudes to race

'your son-in-law is far more fair than black'
'These Moors are changeable in their wills'
'Haply, for I am black And have not those soft parts of conversation That chamberers have'
'Not to affect many proposèd matches Of her own clime, complexion, and degree, Whereto we see in all things nature tends— .. Her will, recoiling to her better judgment, May fall to match you with her country forms, And happily repent.'
'All my fond love thus do I blow to heaven. 'Tis gone. Arise, black vengeance, from the hollow hell!'
'now begrimed and black As mine own face'
'you the blacker devil'
